

Holocaust Education Trust Ireland and Dublin City Libraries
in association with Galicia Jewish Museum, Kraków invite you to view the Exhibition:

FIGHTING FOR DIGNITY: JEWISH RESISTANCE IN KRAKÓW

18 January 2010 – 20 February 2010
Central Library, Ilac Centre
Henry Street, Dublin 1

During the Holocaust, resistance in the ghettos of Europe took many forms: armed uprisings, clandestine observance of Jewish rituals and education, and smuggling food. All of the ghettos were ultimately destroyed by the Nazis and most of the inhabitants were transported to death camps and murdered. There were few survivors.

All enquiries to:

Open Learning Centre, Central Library

Tel: 01 8734333

Email: centrallibrary@dublincity.ie

SECONDARY SCHOOLS: The exhibition is open 6 days a week and viewing for schools is recommended. Guided tours may be booked directly with the library, worksheets and video recordings of Holocaust survivors will also be available.

Holocaust Education Trust
Ireland

