

5. Milk and Cookies: Storytelling

Venue: Exchange: Intercultural Dublin Sept 13th.

Date: Tuesday, September 13th 2011

As a part of the One City One People campaign, this Milk & Cookie Stories will revolve around the theme of Intercultural Dublin. We could have several featured storytellers from various ethnic and migrant communities around the city. Community and audience members can also sign up at the beginning of the night to share their stories about living in an Intercultural Dublin. Participants will be chosen on a first-come, first-served basis and those with theme-based stories will be given priority. These can be both real life stories about what it is like to be ethnically/culturally different (or not!) in Dublin and various other cultural tales and fables. Audience members will also be encouraged to bake and bring in cookies of their own ethnic/cultural background with a little card identifying what culture the cookie is from. We could facilitate brief discussion after each of the stories if audience members have any questions.
